Mr. Johnson -

I represent Trident Literacy Association, Inc. relative to this matter.

If you'd like to send me the requisite Request for Waiver of Service of Summons forms and a Waiver to be filed, I will review and get back to you to save you the cost of service.

Please advise.

Thank you.

Mr. Steinmetz,
Good afternoon. I have mailed you the necessary documents to request a waiver of service of the Summons in this case. I am emailing you a PDF scan of the documents and my letter as a courtesy copy.

Mr. Johnson -

I have good news and bad news.

Bad news - You and I will not be working together.

Good news - because the defense of this case has been transferred to our good buddy, John Wilkerson's firm, Turner Padget in Charleston (my hometown, by the way), you will get to work with John's colleague, Nosi Ralephata, who, along with her Assistant, April Hager and John, are copied hereon. You will note that I am forwarding that which you sent to me to them via attaching the same to this email.

Thus, please direct all further correspondence, inquiries, missives, communications, and calls to Nosi.

I regret that we will not have the pleasure of working together, but I am comforted by the fact that my (former) client will be defended by among the finest that Charleston has to offer.

Thank you.

Thanks, Christian,
Turner Padget is a great firm to work with, and I'll be glad to get in touch with John again.
Thanks for forwarding my email. I'll look for a response from Ms. Ralephata. It's been a pleasure working with you. I hope we get to meet some day.

Hello, Christian. I never got a response from Turner padget on this case. I am about to go ahead and serve. I just wanted to check with you before I incur costs that would be taxed against your client.

Chalmers -

I suggest you contact Nosizi Ralephata one more time before serving, as I recall she was prepare to save you all costs as to that.

I have cc-ed her hereon.

If you cannot get ahold of her, please let me know.

Many thankjs,

CJSIII
